

Haeley Buchinger and Richard Kughn show off Kughn's 1953 Cadillac Eldorado, part of the event's "Best of Detroit" collection. (Charles V. Tines / The Detroit News)

Wednesday, July 29, 2009

Meadow Brook Concours d'Elegance
Concours d'Elegance a classic attraction

The annual Meadow Brook Concours d'Elegance will feature more than 200 vintage vehicles.

The event on Aug. 2 will include "The Best of Detroit" -- 80 cars showcasing Detroit design from the 1920s through the 1960s. This is the 30th anniversary of the car show, which costs $25 for adults and is held on the grounds of Meadow Brook Hall on the campus of Oakland University in Rochester Hills.

The Concours also will feature a 1954 Fiat 8V Supersonic, a 1934 Rolls Royce Phantom II, and the North American debut of the 1934 Alfa Romeo 8C 2300, among other rare and historic automobiles.