Sirens of Chrome

2008

An evening to celebrate the "Sirens of Chrome" exhibition at the Detroit Public Library's Rose and Robert Skillman Branch. The exhibit, hosted by the Detroit Public Library Friends Foundation and the Friends of the National Automotive History Collection, will include dozens of photographs of human hood ornaments and fast cars throughout the years. Author Margery Krevsky, owner and CEO of Productions Plus Talent Agency, also will be present to sign her just released book, "Sirens of Chrome: The Enduring Allure of Auto Show Models." Light refreshments and hors d'oeuvres will be served.

Estimated attendance is 200.
